

Why Neapolis

Becoming a member of Neapolis means joining a thriving community of undergraduates, postgraduates and tutors working together to maintain the University's unique atmosphere. As an undergraduate at Neapolis you will enjoy:

- ▶ Academically stimulating courses taught by excellent and approachable tutors
- ▶ An exceptionally friendly university that welcomes everyone and give students from all backgrounds
- ▶ the chance to succeed
- ▶ Our beautiful campus
- ▶ Campus accommodation for all four years of your course

Teaching

Teaching is at the heart of our academic work and our mission for academic excellence. You will have lectures and small group tutorials with tutors, giving you a chance to work closely with leading academics in your field. Your studies will be amply supported by the University's very well resourced library open 7 days a week and our excellent IT network and resources.

Living in Pafos

The university campus is located in Pafos, a city declared an UNESCO World Heritage Site. The rich historical past and the vibrant cosmopolitan present, the mild climate and the beautiful beaches, the natural landscapes and the unique nightlife make Pafos an ideal place to study and live.
